SENATOR MAHONEY: No, nothing that I know of.

SENATOR DUIS: You see we have an opportunity Senator Mahoney to put this in the computer now. So, we will be able to keep it up to date just like the statutes, but apparently we don't have any money. So, with your kind indulgence Senator, I'll pursue this and when we get over to Select File, then we will iron the thing out.

PRESIDENT: Senator Marvel.

SENATOR MARVEL: Okay, I renew my motion to advance 883 to E & R Initial, 883 as amended.

PRESIDENT: Okay, record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays.

SENATOR MARVEL: Now, Mr. President, Vince lets start on 984.

CLERK: Read LB984. On this one Mr. President, I do have some amendments. The first one is offered by the committee, signed by Senator Marvel. There do not appear to be any to the committee amendments so those are intact.

SENATOR MARVEL: You have a group of amendments? I mean my amendments?

CLERK: No, just your committee amendments.

SENATOR MARVEL: Okay, we are now talking about the committee amendments to 984. Is that what you are doing?

CLERK: Yes.

SENATOR MARVEL: Okay. First of all what the committee did was to take the green copy of 984 and...which is basically set up for the purpose of capital construction, fire safety and facility preservation projects. We rearrange some of the sections because it was technically easier to clear up the original bill by replacing it with these amendments. I would like to indicate to you what these amendments do to you basically. If you would like to follow...if you are interested in following this, on page 7, we list two new medium minimum correctional facilities. One in Lincoln and the other in Omaha. On page nine, we are talking about a diagnostic evaluation facility in Lincoln. Page eleven animal facilities at the University of Nebraska, Curtis, page eleven line eight; new experiment station headquarters at South Central Station at Clay Center. Page eleven, new Plant Science Complex on the east Lincoln campus. Page thirteen, partitioning and furnishing for the new Lincoln State Office Building. Page fourteen, a new warehouse for surplus property and page fourteen line eleven, new state patrol office in Norfolk. The total impact of this bill originally was the Governor's recommendations was $15,236,970 for this next fiscal year. The committee increased it slightly to $15,309,970. There are five items that are different between the Governor and the Committee. The first
